Our flame's blazing again – sehsüchte is going into its 38th season

From 21 to 26 April 2009, sehsuechte, the International Student Film Festival, is showing gems from the new generation of international filmmakers.

Year for year, the International Student Film Festival, sehsuechte, brings together the art of young filmmakers with the experience of professionals from the media. Big name juries will be awarding prizes worth some 50.000 Euros for the best works. With 10.000 visitors, this is the biggest student film festival in Europe, and this year it's all on from 21. - 26. April 2009 - once again in Thalia-Kino in Potsdam-Babelsberg, Germany. Whatever your taste in films, you'll find impressive and innovative pearls from the new generation of international filmmakers.

Right up to 2 February 2009, the up-and-coming filmmakers have the chance to enter their work for the categories feature film, documentary film, animation, experimental and music video - not forgetting that last year over 800 filmmakers took up this opportunity. This year's first-round selection already has over 400 films submitted.

Application forms and further information are at www.sehsuechte.de.

Once again in this year, students at the Hochschule für Film und Fernsehen "Konrad Wolf" / The Film & Television Academy "Konrad Wolf" in Potsdam-Babelsberg have total control of the festival's concept and organisation.
